THIS MONTH'S MUSIC

*Danny Moore
the Boogie Woogie Flu*

Danny Moore, born in Janesville, knew at an early age that he was meant to play piano. After years of studying classical, pop and jazz styles, he discovered the wonderful world of rockabilly and blues piano. Performing in the styles of Jerry Lee Lewis, Ray Charles, Dr. John and Fats Domino, Danny has made a name for himself as the Milwaukee area's only boogie woogie rock-and-roll pianist.

Come see for yourself Dec. 6. Your shoes will hit the floor and keep moving until 10, when you go out the door!

From the President
Mary Beth Braun

This December brings us opportunities to have fun with other Vagabonds. We have a Fish Fry at Alioto's, Sunday hikes, Friday Bowling on the 8th and Over the Hump night. See details inside this Life.

And, of course, we are looking forward to Christmas fun and festivities. Haven't we all heard the phrase: It is better to give than to receive?

“Christmas is most truly Christmas when we celebrate it by giving the light of love to those who need it most.”

(RUTH CARTER STAPLETON)

It is so true that we humans feel so good when we offer our time and friendship to someone less fortunate. Today, instead of asking our Vagabonds to volunteer for the Club, I'm asking you to somehow give to someone who could use your help and friendship; someone who is homebound or ill and needs just a one-hour visit to lift their spirits this holiday season. You may have someone you could bring a smile to with homemade cookies or fudge. You may have a neighbor who needs help putting up a tree or decorations. Or maybe you could donate your time to an organization devoted to helping those in need, such as food distribution. Maybe you have a Vagabond friend who is dealing with illness or sadness who you could visit – caring friends like you brighten the holidays for others. We are fortunate to have so much, and we have generous Vagabonds who can do so much for others.

Yes, I'm thinking of all of you and wishing you nothing but the best that this season has to offer. This season is for joy – enjoy it!

May all the celebrations of Christmas, including family, food and fellowship, leave us with hearts full of joy, hopes and happiness – leading to a wonderful year ahead.

Merry Christmas Vagabonds!

Recognition Dinner

On Oct. 28, we hosted a Recognition Dinner to say “Thank you” to members who have volunteered many hours to support the club and make events happen. We extended our thanks to people in all aspects of the club: membership, social, racquet sports, skiing and sporting activities.

As a club, we honored some members with awards because they have consistently worked for the club for the past three or more years as event planners, league coordinators and overall leaders.

Recipients of the Outstanding Service Awards 2023

Cheryl Jaeger and Diana Schneider have coordinated the Monday Night Tennis League since 2017, which takes weeks of planning to acquire courts, match players and schedule games.

Pat Hummer has run the summer Pickleball league for several years.

Dan Heidemann coordinated the eight-month Sunday hikes for the past three years. He also was co-event leader for the out-of-town bike trips and a frequent Sunday bike ride leader.

Jim Stephens has coordinated the Sunday bike rides for the past three years. He is a frequent leader of the rides as well a leader for hikes, and is an event leader for sporting events.

John Podsedly has been an active leader in the club since 2017, serving as a director on the board, co-captain of the ski racing team and event co-leader on three Western ski trips. He also has been editor of the Life newsletter for three years.

Outstanding Achievement Awards 2023

Cindy Hummer was Social Activities director for six years. She planned, scheduled and led dozens of events to theaters, concerts, plays, sporting events and supper clubs. While on the board of directors, she helped us establish a system through Wild Apricot to accept credit-card payments from members and improve communications.

Joyce Szulc, a past president of the club, was secretary and then director of Skiing Activities on the board for many years. With her leadership, the club endured the Covid years. She coordinated many ski trips and led bike rides, hikes and many other events. She helped implement Wild Apricot, and she promotes the club on social media through Facebook and Meetup.

Lifetime Achievement Award 2023

Ron Sonntag has been our Master marketing director. No one promoted our club quite like he did as president for nine years. The list of his accomplishments and participation goes on and on. ...

Ron led the monthly general meetings, always proclaiming: Our Vagabond Club is the greatest Club in the world! He led events to theater, to sporting events, to the symphony, Lake Geneva boat rides, Zany Bowling, Golf Scramble, trips to New York City, foreign countries, and of course, he was the leader of Sunday hikes for years. The list goes on and on. . .

The Vagabond Ski and Social Club thanks Ron for his many years of service and FUN!

Safety Tips for Skiers

Being as safe as possible on the slopes is key to having a good time. Here are some sensible tips for all skiers.

Ski patrol number: Add the local ski patrol number to the contacts on your smartphone. Hopefully, you won't need to use it, but if an emergency does occur, you will be glad it is there.

Wear a helmet: The most important safety tip is to wear a certified helmet. Both the National Ski Patrol and the Professional Ski Instructors of America recommend wearing a helmet.

Use proper ski equipment: Don't borrow equipment. Rent from a ski shop. Make sure your ski boots are fitted properly and that your bindings are properly adjusted. Wear ski goggles that fit correctly around your helmet.

Take a break: If you are tired, rest for a while and make sure you eat and drink enough. Skiing burns a lot of energy.

Ski with a friend: It is always safer to ski with someone.

Respect your limits: Do not ski trails that are above your skill level. Stay in control and focus on the trail you are skiing. Distractions can lead to accidents.

Follow the rules: Obey posted trail closures and other warning signs. Remember that skiers in front of you and below you have the right of way.

Prepare for the weather: Wear layers of clothes and wear a helmet liner, a hat or a headband under your helmet. Wear mittens or gloves. Bring an extra pair in case the first pair gets wet.

Get proper instruction: Even experienced skiers can polish their skills with a lesson now and then, especially at the beginning of the season.

Ski racing

Your Vagabond Ski Team begins the race season Saturday, Jan. 6, at Sunburst. Spectators are encouraged to come out and watch the team in action, along with a trophy presentation after the race. Several people have joined our club after experiencing a race day.

Metropolitan Milwaukee Ski Council Senior Racing has 14 races scheduled over seven dates this winter. About 40 skiers compete at each race. Awards are presented in each class. The Vagabonds will again compete against three other teams. Last season, the Vagabonds men's and women's teams each finished No. 1 overall.

All MMSCSR clubs practice from 6:30-8:30 p.m. Wednesdays and Thursdays at Sunburst.

All Vagabond skiers intermediate or better are invited to try running race gates with us. Fill out and bring a waiver from the website (mmscsr.com), show up and identify yourself. Skiing down a course at practice, whether starting from the top or halfway down, is a way to make local skiing exciting and fun.

For more information, email JohnPodsedly@gmail.com, call (414) 369-4199 or visit MMSCSR.com
